"It's always great to see a dentist giving back to the profession, whether through teaching, motivating, mentoring, or even just sharing helpful advice among colleagues. Dr. Justin Bhullar is doing every one of those things here. "High-Performance Practice: Management, Marketing and Leadership" is a terrific reminder and teacher for all the things we, as wet-handed dentists, often overlook or simply forgot. Dr. Bhullar presents part motivational seminar and part practice management guide with meaty chunks of practical information, instructions, indicators, financial insights, and more. Good for seasoned dentists and even better for any doctor new to the business of dentistry. From start to finish, this book is a worthy title to keep close at hand."
– Dr. Howard Farran, creator of Dentaltown.com, publisher of Dentaltown magazine, and author of "Uncomplicate Business: All It Takes Is People, Time, and Money."
